PUBLIC LEDGER

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1907.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1908.

MAYSVILLE, KY., MONDAY, JANUARY 30, 1905.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

THE REVISED VERSION.
The Queen of hearts,
She made some tarts
All on a winter day.
She had a mood
For breakfast food,
So stuffed them full of hay.

The King of hearts,
He called for tarts,
And took a bite, of course,
Then to his Queen,
He cried in spleen,
"Am I your King, a horse?"

The King of hearts,
He threw the tarts
Upon the palace floor.
The Queen just rules
She never foals
With cooking any more.

The Pianette, the latest arrival, at Burgoyne & Mitchell's.

Yesterday was a typical January wintry day. It was cold and bleak, with a heavy snow fall all day.

The St. Charles Hotel has adopted the European as well as the American plan. Meals served at all hours, day or night. Oysters in all styles.

The sick: Colonel W. W. Baldwin is about holding his own; Mr. T. Y. Nesbitt continues very ill; Policeman P. Ryan is somewhat better, and Harvey Grimes is still abed suffering with inflammatory rheumatism.

Only 26 more days to get your tickets on the Diamond Ring. Ticket with every $ worth of goods even, at reduced prices. Tickets given to all who pay their accounts.

MURPHY, the Jeweler.

Mr. Albert J. Cline, an employee of the Maysville Foundry and Machine Works, while engaged in unloading a casting from a wagon Saturday, had the misfortune to mash several of his fingers by the heavy iron falling on them. While the injury is not serious it is painful.

Mr. Charles Burgess Pearce, Jr., one of Nature's Noblemen, spent Sunday with friends in this city. Charles is an Ohio granger, and is now enjoying the ease and comfort of a well-to-do farmer. His farm on the Bradyville pike, about eight miles back of Aberdeen, is an ideal place.

ONCE MORE

About That Light—Perhaps the Third Time Will Bring It

You City Dads will remember that several moons ago your august body in Council assembled, did, after much harangue and speechifying, there and then agree and so order to be done, under the supervision of the City's Master Mechanic, according to the law as set forth in the ordinance governing and regulating lights, issue your proclamation, with the seal of the city attached thereon, authorizing the placing of an electric light nearby or adjacent thereto, that the effulgent rays therefrom might penetrate and dissipate the darkness and gloom that hovers and dwells 'neath the lonesome walk under the C. and O. Bridge over Bridge street.

"What say you, gentlemen, to the indictment?"

"Not guilty."

"Holy horrors."

For truth and veracity you stand impeached by the entire citizenship of the East End, who, in wending their way home after nightfall, take a chance on being assaulted by a murderous footpad lying in wait.

Yes, assaults have been made at this particular spot several times, and no doubt will be again unless you remedy matters.

Now that the big meeting has begun there will be considerable travel by ladies from that part of the city, and it is not asking too much of you to place a light in the vicinity.

If the city is too poor to have an arc light, you might hang a few lanterns or place tallow dip candles along the route.

What the people of that end of town want is a light, and they are not kicking as to what manner of light it is, neither, but it is a light of some kind that they are determined to have.

A word to the wise is sufficient. Will the East End Councilmen catch on?

SOCIAL EVENTS

One of the nicest little affairs ever given in Maysville was by Miss Nellie Fitzgerald at her home in Third street.

The house was profusely decorated with plants and flowers, each room illuminated with various tinted candellets, the whole being tastefully arranged, the color scheme being pink and green.

The supper was beautifully served.

It might have fittingly graced a Delmonico.

After several delightful hours the guests, with reluctance, bade the hostess good-night.

It was conceded by all one of the most delightful evenings ever spent.

Maysville Hasn't Had a Fire Engine For Many Years

During a recent big fire in Augusta, according to a dispatch to The Courier-Journal, "the Maysville engines were sent for."

Is it possible that the correspondent didn't know that Maysville hasn't had a fire engine for twenty years?

But she has the best fire service in the world—a gravity pressure of 150 lb. and the boys who know how to handle the nozzle.

We rarely allow a fire to get beyond the house in which it originates.

IN OPEN REVOLT

The Breathitt County Outlaws Defy the State Courts

The news from Jackson is that the Hargises and Callahan will resist to the bitter end any effort to take them out of their county. This means that bloodshed is promised in case the Fayette officers go after them, and it is all but certain that they will undertake to obey the instructions to bring the men to Lexington and discuss jurisdiction afterward.

Judge James H. Hazelrigg, Judge Lewis McQuown and Judge J. Smith Hays, representing the Hargis side of the controversy, held a short conference with Colonel John R. Allen, Commonwealth's Attorney of Lexington, Saturday, but in spite of the records and arguments Colonel Allen insisted that the bench warrants issued by the Fayette Circuit Court must be executed, come what may, and all the prisoners placed in the custody of the Court before he will consent to argue the question of jurisdiction. His closing and emphatic statement was: "Bring the men here first. We will discuss jurisdiction afterward."

The three Judges left for Jackson on Saturday afternoon's train to consult with their clients. The Hargis Attorneys positively refused to agree to any surrender of their clients, and firmly adhered to their opinion that the Breathitt Circuit Court had prior jurisdiction over the cases, so that the matter remains in statu quo.

Public expectation is now fully aroused, and the action of the Fayette authorities is discussed on every street corner. The almost unanimous feeling that follows the verdict of guilty in the Britton trial is that if the Hargis brothers are brought to Fayette county for trial they will be convicted and the extreme penalty meted out to them.

Slop for sale at the Limestone Distillery beginning February 1st.

Chief of Detectives Marshall, who went to Jackson to secure the arrest of the Breathitt county men indicted by the Fayette Grand Jury for complicity in the murder of James Cockrill, returned to Lexington alone, the accused refusing to accompany him on the ground that they were under the jurisdiction of the Breathitt county authorities, having been arrested January 25th on the same charge. Court records show also that the men were arrested early in December on the charge of complicity in the Cockrill murder, and that they were released on bonds of $2,000 each to answer to the Breathitt County Grand Jury on February 14th.

THE Louisville Post says Missouri Republicans might learn a thing or two worth knowing by consulting their brethren in Kentucky, who went through a Senatorial contest in Kentucky that is filled with awful examples of what not to do.

THE Kentucky House of Representatives has broken all records. It sat one day this week for five minutes and didn't do a thing but pray, for which it religiously drew $5 per capita.—Louisville Herald.

What are you kicking about? If it wasn't worth a $ a minute to pray for a Kentucky legislator,—well, what do you want in a bowl of soup?

AMERICA is a great country, indeed it is; and Uncle Sam's part of it is the biggest pecan on the tree. Colonel JOHN D. WAKEFIELD, The Louisville Times correspondent, tells what he heard in Washington—

"I tell you, America is a great country," said a member of Congress on the day that the reports of the Russian revolution were published in the Washington newspapers. "Just think of it. There is 'Uncle Joe' CANNON on the rear of that trolley car. He is the presiding officer of the greatest deliberative body in the world. He is hanging on to the railing to keep from being thrown off by a lot of department clerks. He is smoking a Pittsburgh stogie and no one is paying any particular attention to him. If he didn't have car fare he would be put off right here at this corner just like any other man would be.

"If he held a position of equal dignity and power in Russia he would be surrounded by 5,000 soldiers, several troops of cavalry and LORD knows how many guns. No one would ever see his face."

Just then Secretary SHAW came along. He was alone, and was carrying some newspapers and a paper sack filled with fruit.

"Now, there is our Premier of Finance," said the Congressman. "He is walking along here through the crowd. Just imagine the Russian Premier of Finance mingling in a crowd in the streets of St. Petersburg. I tell you I am awed when I think of the greatness and the freedom of this country. What a great thing it is to be an American!"

To the Public:

I have some NEGLECTED property in Maysville that I can sell you at a price that will make you 25% in less than three months. All it needs is to change hands and people will realize how cheap it is.

By the way, did you ever stop to think the amount of work that has been done in our city the past year by reason of my "Combination Sale" and private sales of property?

Out of about twenty-five pieces of city property sold the larger number have had repairs and additions made to them. They have been painted and cleaned up.

What has this done?

It has given employment to the carpenter, the plasterer, the painter, the brickmason, the plumber and all classes of mechanics; has made a demand for hardware, lumber and all kinds of building material; it has improved the appearance of our city, and where once was the appearance of neglect and decline is now the evidence of prosperity and progress.

Will you not help me to do more along this line? Come and buy something and improve it. It will make you money and help good old Maysville. Spend your money here among our merchants and mechanics, but above all things do all your real estate business either buying or selling with

OPERATIONS AVOIDED

Two Grateful Letters from Women Who Avoided Serious Operations.—Many Women Suffering from Like Conditions Will Be Interested.

When a physician tells a woman, suffering from ovarian or womb trouble, that an operation is necessary it, of course, frightens her.

The very thought of the operating table and the knife strikes terror to her heart. As one woman expressed it, when told by her physician that she must undergo an operation, she felt that her death knell had sounded.

Our hospitals are full of women who are there for ovarian or womb troubles. It is quite true that these troubles reach a stage where an operation is only resource, but such cases are so rare that they are generally supposed, by a great many women, to be cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after the doctors ad an operation must be performed. In fact, up to the point where medicine is certain to help, the most grateful possible to make come from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, have operations.

Treasurer of St. Anselm's Hospital, Indianapolis, writes her cure as follows:

"To express my thanks to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I could not find an operation for my trouble."

Hearing how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had saved other women from serious operations I decided to try it, and in less than four months I was entirely cured; and words fail to express my thankfulness."

Miss Margaret Merkley of 275 3d Street, Milwaukee, Wis., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— "Loss of strength, extreme nervousness, severe shooting pains through the pelvic organs, cramps, bearing down pains, and extreme irritation compelled me to seek medical advice. The doctor, after making an examination, said that I had ovarian trouble and ulceration, and advised an operation as my only hope. To this I strongly objected, and I decided as a last resort to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"To my surprise the ulceration healed, all the bad symptoms disappeared, and I am once more strong, vigorous and well; and I cannot express my thanks for what it has done for me."

Ovarian and womb troubles are steadily on the increase among women—and before submitting to an operation every woman should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and write Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. for advice.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been curing the worst forms of female complaints, all ovarian troubles, inflammation, ulceration, falling and displacement of the womb, leucorrhoea, irregularities, indigestion and nervous prostration. Any woman who could read the many grateful letters on file in Mrs. Pinkham's office would be convinced of the efficacy of her advice and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

A DISTINGUISHED PHYSICIAN'S

OPINION REGARDING OLD AGE.

A distinguished physician has recently declared that "Old age is not a time of life—a length of years—but a condition of the bodily tissues, and it is possible for a man at 50 to seem older than a man at 70."

"This is a fact. We happen to know a mother of 84 years, and a daughter of 60 years right here in Maysville, and honestly you would believe the daughter to be the older of the two. The mother is alert, lively and active, while the daughter is fast losing her mind and memory, and literally dying of old age."

"The secret of youth," says Druggist Peor, "is to keep the bodily tissues from wasting, and the greatest discovery known to medicine for this purpose is our cod liver oil preparation, Vinol, as it contains in a highly concentrated form all of the medicinal elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods' livers, but without oil or grease. Vinol is an ideal strengthener and body builder for old folks, it repairs worn tissues, checks the natural decline, and replaces weakness with strength as nothing else can."

"Vinol tones up the stomach, creates a healthy appetite, makes rich, red blood, and invigorates and strengthens every organ in the body to do its work as nature intended. Vinol is indeed a great blessing to old folks, and extracts from such letters as the following prove it:

Mrs. Sarah J. Windrom of Chicago, Ill., grandniece of Alexander Hamilton, says: "Vinol is a godsend to old people as it is such a wonderful vitalizer and strength creator."

Mr. A. J. Baker of Evansville, Ind., says: "There is nothing like Vinol for the aged, and he would not take a thousand dollars for the good it has done him."

"I just wish every person in Maysville who feels old, whether they are old in years or not, would try Vinol on our guarantee. We will give back your money if you are not satisfied—we mean this for a fair offer and it is up to you to prove our good faith." JOHN C. PEOR, Druggist.

Vegetable silk, made of cotton and collodion, is to be manufactured in Mexico on a large scale. The cost is only one-fifth to one-fifteenth of real silk.

The prize duelist of Paris, M. Rouzier-Doreieres, has fought in seventeen combats and arranged 118 for others.

In Germany a certain sum of money is set aside for each workman every week (the employer and the employee each contributing half), and the Government adds a supplement of $12 on each pension. Ten million workmen are thus insured against sickness, 17,000,000 against accident, 10,000,000 against disability from old age. Six hundred and seventy thousand persons receive the benefit of this fund in yearly pensions.

River News

No prospect of an early resumption of navigation is in sight.

The Ohio is reported frozen from bank to bank some miles below Louisville.

The towboat Ranger could not seek an ice harbor in the Green river on account of heavy ice there.

Rivers are still having a hard time of it. The Ice King has had possession most of the time this winter and is still in central.

The rivers at handwaters are lower than at any time in the past six years and no relief is in sight as long as the cold weather continues.

Navigation is suspended from Pittsburgh to Cairo, and the boats are tied up along shore and going into the side streams to escape the dangers of the ice.

Captain Harry Doss, a well known Cincinnati pilot, has been made Supervising Inspector of Hulls for the Cincinnati district. He succeeds the late Captain S. S. Fearn.

The W. W. O'Neil, with a tow of coal and manufactured iron, was damaged by the ice at West Franklin, Ind., Wednesday and was forced to tie up. The towboat Ranger and tow is tied up at the mouth of Green river.

The Rivers and Harbors Bill, reported to the House, in round numbers carries $15,000,000 cash and nearly $17,000,000 for authorized continuing contracts. For improving the Ohio river at Louisville the sum of $80,000 is appropriated.

The towboat Sprague, the largest of its kind in the world, is at Jeffersonville. In case of a gorge in the river the boat may be used to batter it to pieces. The towboat J. R. Finley, next to the Sprague, the most powerful on the river, is also at Jeffersonville.

Superintendent J. F. Ellison of the Pittsburgh packet line says the proposed trip of the River and Harbor Committee of Congress down the Ohio river, from Pittsburgh to Cairo, on the Queen City, for the purpose of investigating the business along the banks of the stream, and to decide whether a 9-foot stage of water should be made a permanent factor, is all in the talking stage, adding, there has been lots of talk, but not a single detail has been decided upon. It is not even known if the trip will be made, as the members of the Committee will not likely get together in May, the time proposed for the trip. Reports as to the elaborate entertainment of the Committee and some even going so far as to map out a program, are entirely without a fact.

The dispute about the Clifton's tow, which the Frank Gilmore failed to take possession of after being dispatched from Pittsburgh to overtake the Clifton at Parkersburg, and continue South with the tow, develops the fact that not only the towboat Clifton has been attached at Parkersburg, but also her entire tow, containing new barges for the United States Gas Coal Company and the hull of the burned Mayflower, all destined for Paducah. The Frank Gilmore was due down over a week ago, but the complications prevented her journey. When navigation opens she will be turned back to headwaters with a tow of empties.

HIGHEST PRAISE.

The praise of the public is merit's just reward. Nothing in modern times Has received the praises accorded "The Little Conqueror." Of some kinds of praise we are skeptical. We doubt the praise of strangers. The highest praise for Maysville public is hearty expression from Maysville people. Doan's Kidney Pills are indorsed in Maysville. No better proof of merit can be had. Here's a case of it. We have plenty more like it.

James D. Tolle, clerk at Wood Bros' meat market, and living at 117 Short street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"I was troubled a great deal for some time with constant heavy pain in the small of my back and over the kidneys. At times it was so bad that I could not stoop to sit down or get up without much difficulty. The action of the kidneys was noticeably weakened and passages of the secretions were too frequent, and there was a scalding burning sensation at times. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills I began using them and finding great benefit, continued the treatment until I had taken one or two boxes more and was thoroughly cured of all my troubles. I have never had the least bit of suffering from my back or kidneys since. I give all the credit to Doan's Kidney Pills and feel justified in strongly recommending them to others."

Plenty more proof like this from Maysville people. Call at J. James Wood & Son's drug store and ask what their customers report.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box.

UNDER SOUTHERN SKIES.

Few plays of recent years have been as successful as "Under Southern Skies," which will be seen in our city for the first time at the Washington Opera-house on Thursday, February 2nd. This play is described as "the most original, diverting and unhackneyed play of Southern life ever written." The story of "Under Southern Skies" is an absorbing one and it is told with all the fascination that has made the same author's play of "Way Down East" so successful. The story is woven about an aristocratic family of the South and their high born friends. These characters are all types of Southern people and display their chivalry, their hot-headedness, and their spirit of lavish, unstudied hospitality. One of the great features of the play, which has contributed largely to its success, is a Hallowe'en celebration in which the young people play many amusing games, and wind up with a "pumpkin dance."

This county and the city of Maysville have certainly profited by the Tobacco Fairs which have been held in the past, and the sixth one bids fair to be the "Biggest and Best." Let us get together and show what we can do in the way of an exhibit. The surrounding counties will have fine exhibits here. We must maintain our reputation for fine tobacco. Come, come with your samples. JOHN DULEY, President Board of Trade.
